

The Animal Kingdom

(level - hard)

Across

4. Warm blooded animals with feathers
6. A group of animal species which have jointed legs and a hard body covering
7. Animals without a backbone
12. Crabs, lobsters, prawns and crayfish, for example
14. Characterised by scales, gills and a backbone
15. Scaly bodied vertebrates that live on land
16. Worm-like arthropods with many pairs of legs (but not a thousand), and which feed on rotting plant material
17. This group has members which are flat, round and segmented
18. Spiders, scorpions and ticks, for example

Down

1. Vertebrates which spend time on land and in water
2. Sea anemones, jelly-fish and coral, for example
3. Animals with a backbone
5. Arthropods with 6 legs and usually wings
8. Starfish, sea urchins and sea cucumbers, for example
9. Snails, slugs, oysters, and the octopus are examples of this soft-bodied group of animals
10. These worm-like arthropods are actually venomous predators
11. A group of warm-blooded vertebrates which suckle their young
13. Single-celled organisms